G2 Esus4 (E to resolve if desired)
For my city and my friends, let your mercy never end

And this is the broad place you promised
 High hills of access to you
 Here I find renewing
 As you make all things new
 And I know now you are who you say you are
 You do all you say you will do
 I am waiting, and watching, and trusting -
 The work belongs to you

(Alt Choruses)

I want more of you Lord for the outcast

More of you Lord for the orphan

More of you Lord for the broken

For the dying and the lost - let your mercy never end

More of you Lord for the lonely

More of you Lord for the widow

And more of you Lord for the homeless

For the beaten and the shamed – Lord this is why you came

For of you Lord for the grieving

More of you Lord for the stranger

And more of you Lord for the distant,

The depressed and the drained – let your mercy never end
