(with chords & tune of My Song verse)
 For her true song is love unknown
 Her saviour's love for her
 Love to the loveless shown
 That they might lovely be
 All for her, my Lord took frail flesh and died
 Oh her song is truly love unknown
 (Let her sing it)

Cos then will I stay and sing still more
No story so divine
Never was grief dear King,
Never was love like thine
You are my friend
And in your sweet praise
I all my days would gladly spend
