A Bm
I see Him in the pools of your brown eyes

Burnt by poverty's flame
Deafened by injustice refrain
Robbed by history and power's greed
But culture cannot hide,
Religion can't defile
The truth of who made you in love

(Bridge)

G
Christ in me, the hope of glory

D A
Teach me to be your hands and your feet

G
To serve my brothers, the least of these
D A
Each as precious and unique as me
G
And Father I come with so many questions
D A
But I know your truth still stands
G
That these your children, loved by you
D A
Are still held in your sovereign hands
